	Shegor, the great horned owl was found at the base of a tree. Her leg was broken in the fall from her nest.
	Geronimo, American Kestrel, fledged from his nest on top of a power pole into the power lines. He is capable of short flights only.
	Barny, the Barn Owl, was hit by a car on the New Orleans interstate. His fractured wing was repairable, but not enough for Barny to fly.
	Harriet, the Harris Hawk, a retired falconry hawk with breathing difficulties
	Broad-wing Hawk, with a partial wing amputation. We are still looking for the “right name”
